Minato International Cultural Exchange FY2016

What are "Mixed Roots"? ~Embracing culture beyond nationalities~

In recent years in Japan, there are more people with diverse roots of multiple nationalities and cultures who are represented by terms such as "mixed roots", "half" and "double". We will gather to listen to their experiences and views of life in Japan, and to think about the pathways that help Japan coexist with diverse cultures and peoples.

Section 1: Film showing of "HAFU"

Section 2: An exchange between Mr. David Yano (featured in the film to be shown) and Professor Shinji Nozawa of Meiji Gakuin University. This discussion will be followed by an interaction with the audience.
